

Table of Contents

About the Care of the Dying

End of Life Care

Palliative Care

Hospice Care

Other Care Setting

Demographics, Facts and Figures

Cultural Considerations

Psychological Issues

Spiritual Issues

Care of the Family Unit

Massage Therapy Roles in the Care at End of Life

The Role of the Massage Therapist

Other Healthcare Practitioner Roles

Current Practices in Massage Therapy at End of Life

Medical Massage

Client Centered Care

Interdisciplinary and Multidisciplinary Care

Doula Services at End of Life

The Massage Therapy Environment

Massage in the Hospital

Massage in and Office Setting

Massage at Home

Putting Evidence into Massage Therapy Practice

Touch

Massage Therapy Effects

Circulatory Effects

Lymphatic Drainage

Muscle and Tissues

Range of Motion

Symptoms

Fluids and Elimination

Neuro-Endocrine Effects

Assessment

Bolstering, Positioning and Comfort

Medical Devices and Equipment

Special Considerations for Terminally Ill Clients

Cautions and Contraindications

The Dying Process

Dying Pathways

The Final Hours

The Dying Process

Signs and Symptoms of the Dying Process

Disease Specific Treatment

Pulmonary Disease

Heart Disease

Liver Disease
Kidney Disease
Cancer
Dementia
Stroke and Coma
Neurological Disorders
HIV Disease

Symptom Management and Massage Therapy

Advanced Disease and Common Symptoms
Managing Symptoms with Massage Therapy
Massage Therapy Strokes and their Effects
Symptoms

Pain
Nausea and Vomiting
Constipation
Diarrhea
Insomnia
Anxiety
Agitation and Delirium
Depression
Confusion
Coma
Shortness of Breath
Congestion

Scales, Tools and Measurements

Assessment Scales
Prognostic Indicators

The Plan of Care

General Guidelines
The Goals of Care
Massage Therapy Plan of Care

Massage for Caregivers

Caregiver Stress
Care for Caregivers

Teaching Touch Protocols to Caregivers

The value of Touch
A Meaningful Connection
Touch Protocols

Grief Loss and Bereavement

Dealing with Loss
Bereavement Care
Self Care

Documentation

End of Life Care Resources

End of Life Care Organizations
Professional Education

Glossary of Terms